Department Reports

The City Recorder said that May 2018 financial reports were at the members' seats.

Water & Wastewater Superintendent Randy Gregory asked the board to approve the purchase of an effluent flow meter for the wastewater treatment plant. The existing flow meter isn't registering correctly, and TDEC is very particular about these readings. Motion made by Craig Blackburn, seconded by Tom Mikkelsen to authorize up to $4,000.00 for the purchase and installation of an effluent flow meter at the wastewater treatment plant. Motion carried with all ayes.

Committee Reports

Parks & Buildings Chair Michael Barron asked about the status of mowing at the park and any mulch that might be needed at the playground. Public Works Supervisor Randy Gregory said the park would be mowed or weeded before the July 4 festivities. Mayor Younger said that the mulch on the playground would "fluffed" a bit and refreshed; new mulch will be purchased in the new budget. Mayor Younger also reported that the water leak at the park has been fixed.
